

Horticultural Science Summer Institute

Monday, July 6th - Thursday, July 9th
Free! Register through Eventbrite at go.ncsu.edu/HSSI

Tentative Schedule

Monday July 6th

- Live Keynote + Orientation
- Welcome to the JC Raulston Arboretum and “walking tour”
- Plant Identification + activities for home*
- Plant Propagation + propagation activities for home
- Virtual tour of a NC plant nursery

Tuesday, July 7th

- Veggie Production in NC with with some veggie growing and cooking activities
- Plant Breeding + at home breeding and genetics activities
- Virtual tour of NCSU’s Agro-ecology Education Farm

Wednesday, July 8th

- Tour of local garden writer’s Foodscape
- Landscape design and design activity to do at home

Thursday, July 9th

- Live- Welcome back, reflections of the week
- Live- Pathways to NCSU’s College of Agriculture and Life Sciences
- Live- Finding your Fit with the Department of Horticultural Science- degree programs and extramural opportunities
- Live- Closing remarks

Bonus: The art of horticulture

- Floral Design
- Botanical bathbombs
- Horticultural soapmaking

After registration, a link to the HSSI 2020 program website with videos and activities will be emailed, along with the links for the live Zoom sessions.

*Most activities will use materials that you have at home

What is this plant? Plant ID can be wild and crazy.

Plant propagation is a favorite horticultural activity.

NC STATE
EXTENSION

Questions? Contact:

Liz Driscoll, HSSI Program Coordinator
liz_driscoll@ncsu.edu | 919.886.3424